

Happy Food Holidays

Nearly every day is “National Something Day,” so why not use fun, food-themed holidays to add excitement to your menu? With 77% of K-12 foodservice programs reporting lower meal counts this year<sup>1</sup>, you may be looking for ways to build engagement. Get students eager to participate by bringing the school together to celebrate a specific food.

Most food holidays are national, so connect to other schools across the country by sharing photos of your holiday meals online and show support for school meals together.

Use the recipes below for upcoming spring holidays and stay tuned for themed meal ideas for summer, fall, and winter.
